

Lesser Fritillaries and Crescents of Washington - Bob Hardwick -

February 1, 2012

To see this video click <https://youtu.be/5MsUDKabi9A>

When video is playing, you can click on progress bar or move pointer along it to select from the indexed timeline

Introduction	00:00
Ventral hindwing & silver spots for ID	04:03
14 species of lesser frits in N America, we have six	04:56
17 species in Europe	05:39
Boloria altaica	08:19
Bolaria pales	10:33
Bolaria dia	11:47
Boloria of Washington State	13:15
Silver-bordered Fritillary (B. selene)	13:22
Why it disappeared from Moxee Bog	14:45
Meadow Fritillary (B. Bellona toddi)	19:53
Western Meadow Fritillary (B. epithore chermocki)	26:22
Freija Fritillary (B. freija freija)	29:09
Astarte Fritillary (B. astarte astarte)	36:42
Arctic Fritillary (B. chariclea rainier)	43:18
Crescents	46:50
Mexican Crescents	49:02
Pale-banded Crescent (Phyciodes tulcis)	49:06
Pearl Crescent (P. tharos)	49:33
Phycoides of Washington State	50:01
Northern Crescent (P. pascoensis)	50:04
Field Crescent (P. puchella owimba)	53:12
Pale Crescent (P. pallida barnesi)	55:13
Mylitta Crescent (P. mylitta mylitta)	1:00.14